

MIWSAC
Minnesota Indian Women's
Sexual Assault Coalition

2024

STRENGTHENING SOVEREIGN RESPONSES TO SEX TRAFFICKING IN INDIAN COUNTRY AND ALASKA CONFERENCE

This conference will bring together survivors, tribal leaders, field experts, tribal communities, and federal partners focused on improving responses to sex trafficking of American Indian and Alaska Native women, men, and children.

APRIL 9 - 11, 2024
PRE-CONFERENCE | APRIL 8

We invite you to attend the 2024 Strengthening Sovereign Responses to Sex Trafficking in Indian Country and Alaska Conference, in San Francisco, California, from April 8-11, 2024.

WORKSHOPS

The conference plenaries and workshop sessions are designed to equip tribal programs and their partners with critical information and tools necessary to plan and implement comprehensive, culturally-based strategies to combat sex trafficking in Indian Country and Alaska Native communities while highlighting key issues to improve systemic responses to, and support for, American Indian/Alaska Native survivors of sex trafficking.

Find registration information, the full conference agenda, information on hotel/travel accommodations, and more at miwsactraffickingconference.com

Additional questions can be emailed to traffickingconference@miwsac.org

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Tribal Crime Victim Advocates;
Healthcare Professionals;
Law Enforcement; Prosecutors;
Tribal Leaders; Tribal Gaming;
Commercial enterprises;
Travel and Tourism; Hotel staff;
Service providers working with
AI/AN sex trafficking survivors;
Others wanting to learn more about developing comprehensive Tribal responses to sex trafficking in Tribal communities.

Registration Open NOW

MIWSACTRAFFICKINGCONFERENCE.COM

*Please share across your networks***